

William the Conqueror successfully invaded England...

meanwhile, elsewhere...

The Byzantine Empire came under pressure from the Seljuk Turks.

KEY INFORMATION:

Romanus IV Diogenes was _____ between _____ and lost the Battle of _____ in _____.

The map below is of the empire in 1025. Annotate the map with the names of the modern countries that made up the Byzantine Empire in 1025.

Map A: The extent of the Byzantine Empire in 1025.

The second map below is of the Empire in 1076. What has happened to the frontiers of the Byzantine Empire between 1025 and 1076?

Map B: The extent of the Byzantine Empire in 1076.

Write down a definition of the Byzantine Empire

Who fought against whom in the Battle of Manzikert, 1071?

Where was the battle fought?

Who won the battle?

What happened to Romanus and the Byzantine Empire after he lost?

Further research:

The Battle of Manzikert was not the end of the Byzantine Empire. Watch the video until the end and listen for two other important dates: 1203 and 1453. Why are these dates important?

Useful websites, videos and podcasts:

- https://simple.wikipedia.org/wiki/Battle_of_Manzikert
- <https://www.history.com/topics/ancient-history/byzantine-empire>
- <https://www.dailymotion.com/video/x6hnr6x> (Total time is 5mins 20secs)

This 'meanwhile, elsewhere' was designed by:

Rich Kerridge